KULA MURDERER GETS LIFE

YONG LOCK ADMITS KILLING LEE SEE.

Mystery of the Death of a Hermit Chinese Cleared Up—Maui Police Bribers Found Guilty.

LAHAINA, December 9.—Yong Lock Nee pleaded guilty yesterday to the murder of Lee See and was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor. Lee See was a Chinese who lived a sort of hermit life in a cabin far up the mountain from Kamaole, Kula, almost above the corn fields. He raised chickens and vegetables. Thursday morning, August 10th, he was found dead about fifty feet below his cabin with a knife stab in his right breast, which had severed one of the large blood vessels, and with his wrist lacerated with knife cuts. There was every evidence of a prolonged and deadly struggle. It was supposed the hermit had come and found some one robbing his chicken roosts and that the fight and murder followed. Suspicion fell on Yong Lock Nee, and Sheriff Baldwin found him two days later, in hiding, about eight miles from the scene of his crime. On his trial Yong Lock Nee pleaded not guilty, but after a day spent without success in trying to secure a jury, he withdrew this plea and pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree.

Other cases so far tried at this term of the Circuit Court, which began Wednesday, are Republic vs. Josepa Kekahuna, selling liquor without a license, acquitted; Ah Sam and Ahing, convicted of maintaining a lottery, sentenced to one year at hard labor; Sam Ho, sentenced on plea of guilty to bribing a police officer to pay a fine of $150; Lum Long, acquitted by direction of the court because of a variance between the charge and the evidence, on the charge of bribing a police officer, Cathcart for the prosecution, Hons for the defense.

The Government has entered no pros. in a number of cases. Others have been continued to the June term. The calendar will probably be finished about the middle of next week.

PAIA, December 9.—On Thursday night last two of Haiku Sugar Company's contract Galicians took "French" leave, and disappeared. They were apprehended this morning at Lahaina, and will be brought back and given the option of going to work or to jail. One of the men left a wife and several children behind him.
